

Application to Nominate Faculty for the CALS Early Career Faculty Teaching Award

Please send this form and all supporting material as a single pdf
to Sue Merkel at smm3@cornell.edu

Name of nominee _____ Title: _____

Nominee's Department _____

Current appointment: _____ % Teaching _____ % Research _____ % Outreach

Nominator's name _____ Your email _____

_____ Please check here to certify that this nomination is approved by the department chair.

In addition to this cover letter, the nomination packet should include a pdf with the following:

SUMMARY: A nominating statement (maximum of three pages) that confirms their eligibility for this award and presents evidence of the nominee's commitment to excellence in teaching and mentoring.

- describe how they have impacted student learning in CALS, perhaps by developing a new course using innovative and evidence-based pedagogies.
- evidence of exceptional efforts to use innovative teaching techniques and to interact with and mentor students.
- evidence of professional development in teaching and learning (e.g., committee service related to teaching; participation in educational groups within professional societies or at teaching workshops/conferences or other professional development)
- include student comments, indicating teaching excellence and impact.

TEACHING: A table indicating teaching experience, highlighting the nominees primary teaching responsibilities (include course titles), years taught, and approximate numbers of students per course.

LETTERS OF SUPPORT: A maximum of two letters of support, including at least one from a colleague familiar with the nominee's teaching.

TEACHING CV: CV (maximum of three pages) focusing on relevant teaching experiences and accomplishments.