

Application to Nominate Faculty for the
CALS Robert H. Foote Mid-Career Faculty Teaching Award

Please send this form and all supporting material as a single pdf
to Sue Merkel at smm3@cornell.edu

Name of nominee _____ Title: _____

Nominee's Department _____

Current appointment: _____ % Teaching _____ % Research _____ % Outreach

Nominator's name _____ Your email _____

____ Please check here to certify that this nomination is approved by the department chair.

To nominate colleagues for the CALS Robert H. Foote Award, please provide the following documentation along with this cover form.

SUMMARY: A nominating statement (maximum of three pages) that confirms their eligibility for this award and presents evidence of the nominee's commitment to excellence in teaching and mentoring.

- Present evidence for using current and innovative teaching methods in their classrooms, including how this person has worked to keep students abreast of cutting-edge knowledge in their field of expertise.
- Describe exceptional efforts to interact with and mentor students.
- Include student comments, indicating teaching excellence and impact
- List any evidence of participation in the scholarship of teaching and learning (e.g. any publications about teaching and learning, committee service related to teaching; participation in educational groups within professional societies; participation at teaching workshops or conferences or other professional development; previous educational awards)

TEACHING: A table indicating teaching experience, highlighting the nominees primary teaching responsibilities (include course titles), years taught, and approximate numbers of students per course.

LETTERS OF SUPPORT: A maximum of two letters of support, including at least one from a colleague familiar with the nominee's teaching (may also include a letter from a student).

TEACHING CV: CV (maximum of three pages) focusing on relevant teaching experiences and accomplishments.