

Application to Nominate Teaching Faculty for a CALS Teaching Award

Name of nominee _____

Nominee's Department _____

Your name _____ Cornell email _____

For which award are you nominating this teaching faculty? (Check only 1)

Innovative Teacher Award

Young Faculty Teaching Excellence Award

1) Please list the relevant courses this nominee is teaching and has taught:

Course number	~ Class size	Semesters taught

2) Please provide your rationale for nominating this teaching faculty member. Describe how s/he has impacted student learning in CALS, perhaps by redesigning a course or by developing a new course using innovative and active pedagogies. Include in your description any evidence of exceptional efforts to interact with and mentor students. Describe how this person's teaching has impacted teaching and learning in your department or major.

3) Please list any evidence of participation in the scholarship of teaching and learning (e.g. books, articles, publications about teaching and learning; committee service related to teaching; participation in educational groups within professional societies; presentations at teaching workshops/conferences; previous educational awards)

4) Please provide comments from 3 students and/or colleagues who are familiar with the nominees teaching (direct quotes are appropriate).