

Professional Master's Programs

Graduate Field Assistants

Graduate field assistants (GFAs) help students, faculty members, and the Director of Graduate Studies. The GFAs serve as liaisons between students and faculty members. They are familiar with campus resources and can answer many questions about the degree process.

- Animal Science – Donna Wakeman, dlb8@cornell.edu
- Biological and Environmental Engineering – Brenda Marchewka, bls19@cornell.edu
- Food Science and Technology – Erin Atkins, ea56@cornell.edu
- Global Development – Denise Percey, dmp3@cornell.edu
- Horticulture – Kim Cotton, kec36@cornell.edu
- Landscape Architecture – Kristie Oplinger, klo28@cornell.edu
- Natural Resources – Christie Sayre, cms44@cornell.edu
- Plant Breeding – Kim Cotton, kec36@cornell.edu
- Soil and Crop Sciences – Kim Cotton, kec36@cornell.edu