The GRADUATE INTERNSHIP provides full-time research or policy analysis positions with Assembly leaders, committees and research staffs.

A $15,000 stipend is awarded for the January 3, 2017 to June 23, 2017 Internship.

DEADLINE:
Completed applications can be mailed directly by the applicants and must be postmarked by the November 1, 2016 deadline. Extensions may be requested by calling the Assembly Intern Committee at (518) 455-4704.

To be considered for Early Acceptance, please submit application and all supporting documents by August 1, 2016. Interviews will be held in Albany the week of August 15, 2016.

ELIGIBILITY:
Applicants for the Internship must be matriculated in or have recently completed (one year from date of graduation) a graduate degree program. Applicants should have excellent research skills and a strong interest in state government and the legislative process. All majors may apply. International students must have academic requirements in the United States to be eligible and are expected to have proper work authorization prior to the Internship start date, January 3, 2017.

THE INTERNSHIP:
The Assembly Graduate Internship provides research and policy development experiences for up to ten qualified graduate students. Graduate Scholars have the opportunity to develop their understanding of the legislative process and New York State government and to apply their ideas and research skills in the legislative process. Graduate Scholars are required to attend Issue Policy Forums and are enrolled in a course taught by the Professor-in-Residence. Approximately one-third of the participants in the Internship have moved into other positions in state government. The Assembly Intern Committee affords graduate students a unique professional learning experience.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:
Applications and all supporting documents must be submitted to the Assembly Intern Committee in a complete package. All materials must be postmarked by November 1, 2016. In mid-November, the selected applicants are interviewed in Albany. Travel expenses of applicants are not reimbursed. Final selections will be made shortly thereafter.

The following supporting documents are required of all applicants:

- A personal statement (item #16 on the application).
- Official transcripts of all graduate and undergraduate coursework completed and in progress. If the college/university will not release official transcripts to students, they may be sent directly to the Assembly Intern Committee under separate cover. The applicant should note this on the application.
- Two letters of recommendation which discuss the applicant’s research skills, character, understanding of the governmental process, and familiarity with particular public policy areas. Letters should not be requested from anyone who has not directly observed and evaluated the applicant’s skills, character, and areas of knowledge. At least one letter must be from a professor at the current university or most recently attended.

RESPONSIBILITIES:
Graduate Scholars serve as full-time Assembly staff researchers and policy analysts. Assignments are based on experience, program of study, interest, and the availability of supervision within the Assembly. Graduate Scholars’ responsibilities include: fiscal analysis of proposed legislation and program budgets, researching and drafting bills and memos, and preparing background papers and reports. Specific duties are dependent on the abilities of the Graduate Scholar and the needs of the office assigned. Assignments include the following:

Majority Leader – This placement consists of background research for floor debate, short-term analysis, and bill drafting.

Ways and Means Committee – This placement consists of budget and fiscal analysis on various subjects.

ASSEMBLY POLICY:
For the Assembly Policy Prohibiting Fraternization with Student Interns, please visit our website: http://assembly.state.ny.us/internship/

STIPEND:
Assembly Graduate Scholars receive a $15,000 stipend for the six-month, full-time Internship.

EDUCATIONAL COMPONENT:
An Orientation to the legislative process and state government is held in January. The Assembly Intern Committee’s faculty advises the Graduate Scholars and initiates a series of seminars and activities designed to integrate theory and practice. Issues such as legislative reform and policy analysis are examined in small-group discussions with the Professors-in-Residence and legislative leaders. Graduate Scholars should not register for coursework beyond any credit which may be granted by their college for participation in the Internship, without prior approval from the Assembly Intern Committee.

Orientation – Includes sessions on legislative research, the role of legislative staff and interns, legislative/executive relations, political parties in the Legislature, communication skills, the legislative process and budget.

Issue Forums – Graduate Scholars are required to attend. The forums are designed to complement the academic internship curriculum. Experts in areas of government and academia join legislators in presenting a review of the legislative process. Lecture topics include the State budget, the economy, education, criminal justice and elections. Issue Policy Forums are scheduled on Wednesdays including evenings from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

HOUSING:
The Assembly Intern Committee does not provide housing for Graduate Scholars.
If you have any questions, call or write the Assembly Intern Committee as follows:
