INTERNATIONAL STUDIES & STUDENT EXCHANGE COMMITTEE

Peter Hobbs ‘19
Lori Leonard ‘19
Bill Miller ‘20
Tammo Steenhuis ‘20
Dan Luo ‘22

Terry W. Tucker, ex officio
Cindy Tarter, ex officio

Student Member: vacant

INTERNATIONAL STUDIES & STUDENT EXCHANGE COMMITTEE

Number of Members: Five faculty members, two ex officio members (one from the CALS Exchange Program and one from CALS-IP) and one student representative.

Committee Chair: Elected annually by the committee from its faculty membership

Lengths of Terms: Faculty: 4 years (one member elected each year) Students: 1 year

Responsibilities:
The International Studies and Student Exchange Committee will be responsible for overseeing the process of study abroad in the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences. This includes the following responsibilities:

1. Recommended policy and procedures for the existing one-to-one student exchange programs in the College.
2. Explore additional international opportunities consistent with the mission of the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences.
3. Recommend and maintain standards for CALS students to participate in study abroad programs.
4. Consider exceptions to study abroad and academic standards. Exceptions to Faculty Legislation will be sent to the Committee on Academic Achievement and Petitions with a recommendation for action.
5. Maintain liaison with the University’s Cornell Abroad Executive Committee.
6. Report to the faculty once a year on the work of the Committee.