

DO NOT MIX

detergents, sanitizers, disinfectants or acids together.

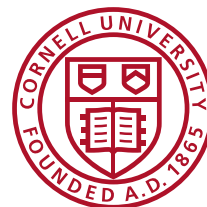

Mixing chemicals together can generate toxic compounds that can cause serious health issues. For example, mixing bleach with an acid, like vinegar, will create highly toxic fumes.

DO

- Use ALL detergents, sanitizers, disinfectants and acids according to the label directions.
- Wear the appropriate protective gear.
- Keep chemicals locked and stored in an appropriate area.

Institute for Food Safety
at Cornell University

Cornell CALS
College of Agriculture and Life Sciences